

World Council of the National Assembly of Churches
Donation Request for its “Committee for Ex-Offenders equality

Make a difference in the lives of ex-offenders—donate today. GO www.wcnac.org

Together we can work to lower recidivism by supporting soon-to-be-released inmates and ex-offenders in their search for employment. The funds we receive will be used to:

Conduct job-search workshops. We offer job-search workshops for soon-to-be-released inmates in prisons and jails. Assist ex-offenders everywhere. Our webpage has tips and tools to help ex-offenders put together an effective job search wherever they are. We are also creating a national directory of low-cost or free tattoo removal programs on our website.

Help us Expand our reach

We plan to: (Any amount from $1.00 and up) in: Ex-offenders can become members for just $1.00.

- Offer our program at more correctional facilities.
- Train job developers to be better able to support inmates and ex-offenders.
- Create a job-search training program for job developers, transition specialists and specialized volunteers.
- Publish regional books that give soon-to-be-released inmates and ex-offenders the tools they need to conduct a successful job search, with links to local support services.
- Expand our website to include links to job-search services throughout the U.S.
- The Internal Revenue Service recognizes Committee for Ex-offender Equality. As a Section 501 (c) public charity (Federal Tax ID # 83-0815980). Your gift is tax-deductible as allowed by law.

THANKS YOU: GO www.wcnac.org mailing: World Council of the National Assembly of Churches Attn: Committee for Ex-offender Equality, P. O. Box 24742, Saint Louis, Missouri 63115